WORD FROM THE CHIEF

Hey fellas--What's up? Well I'll tell you. The lodge is sponsoring an Indian Lore Day. Learn New Dances, Costume making, Make-up preparations, Beading and many more. Have a good time--plenty of cokes and probably a pile of jokes. Here's your knock on the door. Get into the swing of the Harvest Dance, Fire Water, and the Buffalo Stomp. Bob Yeager and John Coleman, my very able Indian Lore consultants have everything to the last bead.

Say, the Area Conference will be here soon. The lodge is now sponsoring, partially, each delegates expenses. We're sending 20 members to Camp Ockirickon, Land of the Ajsapeau, on the weekend of June 12, 13, and 14, 1964. Get your name in now.

Many more things are coming our way in the future--maybe a dance.

Use the correspondence column--Voice of the Goose--we guarantee an answer. How many of you boys know the obligation--What's that?

See you later.
Yours in Scouting,

Bob Farmer

P.S. If you have any cool camping ideas, let the editors know.

NEW NECKERCHIEF

The new year brings with it bigger and better things. For our lodge, this is especially true.

Recently, a design for a much needed lodge neckerchief was submitted by Nick Govatos, to the Executive Committee. The committee approved the design, and ordered a small quantity to be sold this spring. They will be sold on an unlimited basis at $1.00 each. With the small order, its first come, first serve.

Also, this spring, the new pocket flap will go on sale. The new flap sells for 50¢.

Watch for more information on both of these new items--the new neckerchief and flap--in forthcoming editions of the "Wulomoc."

"LAUCHOSHEEN"

A newspaperman, travelling through a backwoods, saw a gnarled, wrinkled, bent old man sitting in a rocking chair on the porch of his house. Sensing a human interest story, the reporter decided to interview the ancient fellow.

"Sire, I'd like to know the secret of your long life," said the reporter.

"Well, I drink a gallon of whiskey, smoke 50 cigars, and go out dancing every day of my life" said the man.

"Remarkable!" exclaimed the reporter. "Exactly how old are you?"

"Twenty-seven," was the reply.
