

January 2016 Minutes

Ordeal: Assessing supplies and for the next weekend

Brotherhood: Took December off, and getting ready for the next year

Vigil: Chad Martin is stepping down, so they are looking for a new Chairman, also the Vigil meeting is today.

Troop Rep: Looking for district representatives in Leni Lenape, and Octoraro districts

Projects: Joey will be stepping down and they have already found a replacement

Unit Elections: Looking for more people to help out in conducting unit elections so one person does not have to do it all.

Costumes: Winter callout costumes ready for use

Communications: Need information from new committee members for the website.

Nominations: Nothing to report

Conventions: Johnny stepped down, now Vacant

Program Development: Packets have been sent out

Camping Promotions: Dylan Seace is stepping down

Trail Crew: Bevan Watson is stepping up as the Chairman

Winter Camp Staff: Had groups come up to Horseshoe and do programs for other troops while they stayed in the OA lodge.

LLD: Looking through the feed back from LLD to make the next one better.

Kitchen: Nothing to report

Trustee: nothing to report

Banquet: The date was changed to March 6th, and it will be hosted at the same venue.

WDHR: Needs to be done by October so a group can come in and use it. Getting close, and should be able to meet the deadline.

Day of service: Looking for a youth that can be a co-chairman

NOAC 2018: Nothing to report

Dance Team: Vacant

Cub Day: Have a meeting planned to discuss a possible change of location for the event

YPT: preparing for the April service weekend

90th Anniversary: Will be selling two sets of patches, and looking into exchanging some with Blue Heron

Orders of the day:

- #Lead: All youth should sign up for it, great chance for leadership training at a NOAC level
- James E. West Fellowship Award: The youth voted on it, and Matt Candy will receive the award. It is a donation in his name that goes to the Council.
- Prism: The rededication ceremony for the original fire circle that was moved to summit. It will be opened up to youth by raffle if there are extra tickets.